

Daily Herald, July 13, 2005

Funding has been confirmed for the widening of the bridge on Route 60 over the Tri-State Tollway, state Sen. Susan Garrett announced Tuesday. Garret said Illinois Department of Transportation Secretary Tim Martin confirmed funds for the $32 million bridge widening and reconstruction, expected to begin in 2007. U.S. Rep. Mark Kirk has earmarked $9 million in federal funding for the project, with IDOT and the Illinois Toll Highway Authority splitting the remaining expense. Local contributions for land acquisition are also expected.